GUNS OF 12 WARSHIPS ROAR IN PRACTICE

Vessels of Atlantic Fleet in Keenest Rivalry in Target Work at the Philippines Grounds.

Manila, Nov. 14.—Twelve battleships of the Atlantic fleet are now engaged in target practice, and the remaining four will soon join the main squadron on the target grounds. The flagship Connecticut will to-day inaugurate big gun practice and will be succeeded by the other vessels. While the keenest rivalry between the officers and the gun crews exists, it is not possible to secure any indications of the results.

Upon the completion of target practice and the ensuing battle practice, the entire fleet will participate in the sham night attacks and torpedo work. It is believed that the warships will be ready to leave the grounds with all their work completed by November 24.

ROOSEVELT ON "OUTLOOK"

President Says He Doesn't Care Who Owns Publication

HE WILL HAVE HIS SAY

Stillman's Share Is Small—Less Than 10 Per Cent, Says Treasurer—Other Stockholders Active in the Work of Publication.

Washington, Nov. 14.—President Roosevelt was somewhat concerned yesterday over the published statement that the majority holding of stock in the Outlook magazine, with which he is to be associated in an editorial capacity, is in the hands of James Stillman, president of the National City Bank, and affiliated with the Standard Oil company.

The story was first dismissed as a "joke." It was said that the president did not believe the story. But later in the day, following the cabinet meeting, the following statement was issued: "The president has not the slightest concern with the question as to who are the stockholders of the Outlook. His concern is with the general policy of the paper, which is and has been consistently admirable in every respect. The president will be responsible only for what he himself writes; and his probable future attitude must be judged by his actions in the past."

The president expressed much surprise to one of his callers over the publication of Mr. Stillman's alleged ownership of the Outlook stock. He appeared disappointed and apparently chagrined.

Says Stillman Owns Less Than 10 Per Cent.

New York, Nov. 14.—William B. Howard, treasurer of the Outlook company, yesterday made the following formal statement:

"Mr. Stillman has for nearly 30 years owned less than 10 per cent. of the stock in the Outlook company. The remainder of the stock is owned by those engaged in the active management of the company."

Mr. Howard said that this was all the Outlook company had to say regarding the current story that Stillman owned a controlling interest in the corporation.

Officers of the Outlook company refuse to make public the name of any of the owners of its $150,000 capital stock. The published report credited Mr. Stillman with owning 1,000 of the total issue of 1,500 shares.

"The company is not a public service corporation," was the reply of William B. Howard.

It is under no obligation to give the names of its stockholders or other particulars regarding its affairs. It is a private business, but the names of its directors may be found in the manuals and the name of Mr. Stillman is not one of them. We can give no information regarding the identity or holdings of a single stockholder."

Mr. Howard said there has been no recent change in the control of the Outlook company. Mr. Stillman is at present in Paris.

TAFT PREPARING SPEECH.

He Is Scheduled to Speak To-day in Brooklyn.

Hot Springs, Va., Nov. 14.—Vice-President-elect Sherman was out early yesterday on the golf links with William L. Ward, national committee man from New York, a prominent Republican. President-elect Taft devoted most of the day to the preparation of the speech he is to deliver in Brooklyn to-day at the unveiling of the monument to the prison ship martyrs. He left here for Brooklyn last night. Mrs. Taft remained here.

TERRY SUCCEEDS FISH.

A New Assistant Treasurer for New York.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The president yesterday appointed George S. Terry to States at New York in succession to Hamilton Fish.

FRIENDS PUT HIM IN OFFICE.

Constable Elected in Joke Will Get Even.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 14.—William E. Green, son of Justice Elmer Ewing Green of the court of errors and appeals, and the young man who used to be captain of the Princeton baseball team, is now a constable in the second ward, where he lives in luxury.

The nomination came as a joke at the direct primaries of last September, and when the jokers had nominated him on the Republican ticket they proceeded to elect him with a greater majority in this heavily Republican ward than Taft received.

Green is relishing the joke, but waiting for an opportunity to arrest some of his rich friends, when he believes the joke will be on them. He is of powerful frame and could give a good account of himself in a scuffle.

HITCHCOCK WILL NOT BE TRIED.

Indictments Against Comedian Probably Will Be Dismissed.

New York, Nov. 14.—Raymond Hitchcock, the comedian, probably never will be tried on the four indictments now standing against him as a result of charges preferred by three young girls. District Attorney Jerome publicly announced in court yesterday that he has abandoned hope of convicting Hitchcock, and upon his recommendation the bill of $7,500 under which Hitchcock has been held was discharged. His attorneys doubtless will within a few days move for a dismissal of the indictments. Hitchcock was acquitted on two of four indictments against him after Clara Whiston, one of the complainants, confessed that she testified falsely against Hitchcock. She is now under $5,000 bail in connection with the perjury charge.

WOMAN IN DENVER EXTORTION CASE NEAR DEATH

Mrs. Allen F. Reed Says She Remembers Nothing of Her Attempt to Get Money From Mrs. Phipps.

Denver, Nov. 14.—Weakened by disease and drugs, Mrs. Allen F. Reed, who threatened the life of Mrs. Genevieve Chandler Phipps with dynamite last Monday, may never live to undergo the experiences of the prison cell or madhouse as the consequence of her daring attempt at extortion.

Late last night information reached Chief of Police Armstrong that Mrs. Reed's condition was extremely critical. The message came from her husband, in whose care Mrs. Reed was placed by order of the chief.

"We think she will never recover," Mr. Reed told the police. "We fear it is only a question of days, perhaps only of hours, until the end comes."

This information was corroborated by Dr. R. O. Butterfield, Mrs. Reed's physician. Mrs. Reed has recovered somewhat from the effects of the drugs she had taken to get relief from pain. Still her mind has not cleared. She insists that she remembers nothing of what had taken place in the last week.

The police have about reached the end of their immediate plans for investigating the Reed case. They confess themselves nonplussed. Chief Armstrong will await the arrival from Rochester, N. Y., of Miss Jessie Campbell, a sister of Mrs. Reed, in the hope that she may be able to throw some light on the mystery, because she was one of the last persons to see Mrs. Reed before she left Pittsfield after the funeral of her father there.

Lawrence Phipps divorced husband of Mrs. Genevieve Chandler Phipps, who has represented his former wife in handling the legal side of the case, announced that he has turned the whole matter over to Dist. Atty. Stidger.

It is said that both Mr. Phipps and his former wife are convinced that Mrs. Reed was not responsible for her actions.

MEMORIAL TO CLEVELAND.

New Jersey Citizens Will Rush Work of Collecting Money.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 14.—At a meeting of the Cleveland Memorial association, held yesterday in the office of former United States Senator John F. Dryden, it was decided to raise by subscription $100,000 to erect a suitable memorial to Grover Cleveland at Princeton.

It was decided to organize a local committee in each of the twenty-one counties of the state and to assign to each county a stated amount to be raised by popular subscription. Fifty of the leading citizens of the state will be named as incorporators, and each person subscribing will be given a certificate of membership in the association, which will be incorporated at once.

PRESIDENT'S SON BALKS ON A BASIN

New Tub for T. R., Jr., Admired by All-day Crowd at Thompsonville.

Springfield, Nov. 14.—"These bath fixtures are for Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and will be installed by us in his apartments in Thompsonville," is the information conveyed by a large placard in the window of a Harrison avenue plumbing establishment, and attracted an all-day crowd.

From unquestionable sources it was learned that the president's son was found taking his maternal bath in a large tin basin, a serious discomfort in learning the carpet business from the top to bottom. The limit came the other morning when Theodore Jr., fell over the basin, thereby precipitating a deluge which played havoc with the only really first-class rug in Thompsonville.

The news of the Harrison avenue display was telephoned to Thompsonville yesterday afternoon, and a delegation of enthusiastic townspeople came to Springfield from the first trolley car to view the immaculate enamel equipment, which is fitted with the latest push button appliances.

The only discordant note in the verdict of unanimous approval was the comment of an incoherent youth of 14: "Geel! They'll have to build a new house to go with Teddy, Jr.'s, tub."
